Reflections From Rick

—Rick Plattner, Director of Public Relations

HOPE ... It has been said that a person can live 40 days without food, four days without water, four minutes without air, but only four seconds without hope. While we couldn't imagine living without any of the physical aspects of life for very long, we need to consider our necessity for hope.

The Scripture speaks in Hebrews 6:18-19 about the hope that is set before us. We read that hope is an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and that it gets us to Jesus. Romans 15 calls God the God of hope, who fills us with joy and peace in believing. It further relates that we can abound in hope through the power of the Holy Ghost.

At Fairview Haven, we want to be workers in God's kingdom, providing hope to those we serve. Rather than focusing on what our neighbors here cannot do, we are able to rejoice and build upon what they can achieve.

Our mission statement says Fairview Haven is a place where choice is valued, growth is encouraged and life abounds. Doesn't that sound like a hopeful place?

Fairview Haven is not only a haven of hope for the elders that we serve, but also a haven providing hope to our teammates. This is accomplished in a number of ways.

One way involves an initiative we began about eight months ago called HOPE. HOPE is a part of our employee assistance program. The name HOPE is an acronym for: Helping Others Prosper and be Encouraged.

Since its inception, there have been a number of teammates who have received interest free loans (with an easy repayment plan) to assist them in times of need. This has provided a safety net for them allowing them to meet obligations and continue to work and serve our loved ones at Fairview Haven. It has been a true port in the storm.

We know this valuable truth, that when we help our caregivers, we are helping our loved ones who are being cared for.

Those who have utilized HOPE have found that some of their debt has even been written off through their diligence in picking up extra shifts and maintaining good attendance.

HOPE also provides for mentoring teammates in areas of grief, relationships, and financial training.

How is this possible? Through the generous support of those who have partnered with us to give help to those in need. Thanks for those who have targeted this fund with your donations. If anyone else would be interested in how they can help, please contact Rick at 815-692-6702

Happy 60th, Fairview Haven!

On Sept. 4, 1962, the first residents (John and Anna Hodel) moved into Fairview Haven. This September, Fairview Haven celebrates our 60th year in our mission of serving seniors!

The vision for Fairview Haven as stated in the dedicatory flyer was: "We sincerely trust that Fairview Haven may be a place of dignity and peace for those who have reached the sunset years and that they may know the deep joy of Christian Fellowship and the Security of Compassionate Care."

It is reassuring to recognize that, although generations have come and gone, the vision of Fairview Haven remains unchanged. As the early pioneers who crafted the vision and dedicated this home to the service of others put their trust in God, so we continue on, trusting that He will provide.

*God grant us now His Power,
And help us by His might,
To follow truth this hour,
All guided by His light;
And may we work together
As one in mutual love,
Forsaking self and gather

—Poem in dedicatory flyer

We are planning a celebration and ice cream social on Friday, Aug. 26. Please see the flyer in this issue of the newsletter for more information. And watch for updates on Fairview Haven's Facebook page!

On the Bulletin Board: Rollin Nussbaum

EDITOR'S NOTE: We continue with features about the Fairview Haven board members ...

Rollin Nussbaum served on the Fairview Haven board for three years prior to moving to the Seattle, WA area for a number of years. Upon returning to the area, he was recently selected to serve a nine-year term.

Rollin says: "I think serving on the Fairview Haven board is a wonderful way to serve the Lord and the community. I've always viewed Fairview Haven as a mission of caring and mercy. But there is great opportunity to spread the Gospel. I'm looking forward to working with the current board members and management team to continue on this mission. Seeing how the Lord has provided for this facility, against what appears (at times) to be overwhelming odds, has always strengthened my faith in Him."

Rollin works as a lumber trader for Hampton Lumber Co in Portland, OR. He has one daughter, Addie (Wesley) Kostellic and two granddaughters, Lola (6) and Ellouise (5), as well as (Lord willing) a grandson on the way in August. Rollin's parents were Willis and Elna Nussbaum.

Hobbies: Rollin enjoys listening to all kinds of music and observing nature sights.

Rollin concludes: "I think the upcoming years for Fairview Haven will bring on very critical decisions of change as our society has changed and our existing facility has grown older. But the mission and purpose remains the same. I think it will be an exciting time of concerns and challenges. I need many prayers, please."

ROLLIN NUSSBAUM and granddaughters

WHY ENGLISH IS HARD TO LEARN

We'll begin with box; the plural is boxes,
But the plural of ox is oxen not oxes.
One fowl is a goose and two are called geese,
Yet the plural of moose is never called meese.

You may find a lone mouse or a house full of mice;
But the plural of house is houses, not hice.
The plural of man is always men,
But the plural of pan is never pen.

If I speak of a foot and you show me two feet,
And I give you a book, would a pair be a beek?
If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth,
Why shouldn't two booths be called beeth?

If the singular's this and the plural is these,
Should the plural of kiss be ever called keese?

We speak of a brother and also of brethren,
But though we say mother, we never say methren.
Then the masculine pronouns are he, his and him;
But imagine the feminine ... she, shis and shim!

THINGS WE SAY TODAY WHICH WE OWE TO SHAKESPEARE

Knock, Knock! Who's there? - In a pickle - Set your teeth on edge - Heart of gold - Faint hearted - Send him packing - Good riddance - So
-So - Fight fire with fire - Lie low - Baited breath - Come what may - The game is up -

Wear your heart on your sleeve - Not slept one wink - Come full circle - Out of the jaws of death
- Too much of a good thing - What's done is done
- Naked truth - Break the ice - Wild goose chase
- Breathed his last - In my heart of hearts - Vanish into thin air - Seen better days - Makes your hair stand on end - Dead as a doornail - Fair play/foul play - Off with his head - Love is blind
- Green-eyed monster - The world is my oyster - Be all/end all - A sorry sight - Catch a cold - It's all Greek to me - Laughingstock - Method to his madness - One fell swoop - Stuff that dreams are made of - All that glitters is not gold.

ENGLISH HUMOR

Some say that the English language is hard to learn. But you can do it through tough, thorough thought though.

There's only one word in the English language that begins with U and ends with E. Unbelievable, right?

Nothing in the English language starts with N and ends with G.

People claim that, in the English language, y can be a vowel, but I think that's just a myth.

The quantity of consonants in the English language is constant. If omitted in one place, they turn up in another. When a Bostonian pakks his cah, the lost Rs migrate southwest, causing a Texan to warsh his car and invest in erl wells.

If you have any poems or short inspiring articles to contribute for Party Line, please send to Sally Fehr (sfehr@fairviewhaven.org) or drop them off at the Social Service office. They will be printed as space is available.

Personnel Profiles

Shay McDonald has been part of the Fairview Haven dining services team for four years. She says, "I really enjoy the residents and my teammates. It's like having a second family. I always love listening to the residents' stories and helping them out with things."

Her parents are Jay and Renee

McDonald of Fairbury. Her siblings are: Mitchell (Liz) McDonald and Tara (Michael) Reiners and she has a niece (Berkley) and two nephews (Rolen and Wade). Her grandparents are Ron and Sue McDonald (formerly owned McDonald's Family Restaurant).

Shay enjoys spending time with family, shopping, fishing, playing with my dog, watching TV and playing games. She also likes spending time outside in the summer, riding bikes, going on walks and playing with my niece and nephews.

Thoughts from Dave's Desk ...

Dave Blunier, Administrator

In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. —I Thessalonians 5:18

As we look at the past couple years and into the future of long-term care, we could easily become discouraged. The covid pandemic has been a very large strain on long-term care organizations across the company. Covid wreaked havoc on our organizations early on by rapidly running through our buildings, causing significant suffering by some residents and ultimately leading to death of a significant percentage of elderly persons.

As the journey was in the early stages, CDC and our regulatory bodies with good intentions began giving advice and implementing regulations that were helpful and necessary and at the same time very difficult for our residents and staff. Looking back, we see that mistakes were made, and some things were perhaps not as necessary as we thought. Nonetheless, covid-19 was and continues to be a strain on the operations of Fairview Haven.

In addition (and perhaps because of the covid-19 regulations), we have also experienced a calamity regarding staffing. According to reports, 99% of nursing homes in the United States reported inadequate staffing.

Fairview Haven has been blessed with a team that has remained committed to the organization and the ministry we provide here. We were forced to deny some admissions due to inadequate staffing, but thankfully always had enough staff to provide the care our residents needed. We continue to struggle to maintain a healthy number of team members.

Covid regulations aren't the only regulations that concern Fairview Haven. The regulatory bodies have become more aggressive, hopefully in an effort to reform homes that aren't adequately caring for our vulnerable seniors. Unfortunately, as demands grow on our nursing homes, it becomes more difficult to focus our time on the needs of the residents as we are diverted by ensuring that our documentation is all in line for state surveyors.

Like everyone reading this article, Fairview Haven has also felt the effects of the devastating rise in cost of goods.

Our management team has been striving to be good stewards of the resources we have and are looking at opportunities to reduce waste and realign our processes to become more efficient.

Photo Puzzler

Identifying some of the ladies in the last Photo Puzzler were: Wanda Coyne, Sandra Schneider and Rick Plattner. The ladies (all former Fairview Haven team members) are (L-R): Betty Niesmann, Dawn Metz, Marie McKinley and Donna Meints.

quotes and watering flowers. He passed away in 2013.

Unfortunately, the sharp increase in costs cannot be fully recouped from those who need our services. While our cost of care increases, less of our residents can afford the services therefore increasing the need for government funding. The government isn't willing to pay for the quality services we desire to offer here at Fairview Haven, and therefore we rely heavily on our family of supporters to supplement through our Good Samaritan Fund.

So, yes, things look bleak. But I want you know that there is reason to be thankful every day!

Here are some things I'd like you to give thanks for:

1. At this point, God has provided for Fairview Haven financially and we are still financially stable, despite significant deficits the past couple of years.

2. Fairview Haven is blessed with an amazing team of caregivers. Recently, I had the privilege of bringing my wife's aunt to Fairview Haven. The loving reception she received from the entire team at Fairview Haven blew me away. I hear about this every day from others but to experience it personally made me even more aware of what a blessing this team is!

3. We have a great community of support. During covid, tensions ran high and there were many different opinions on how things should be done. I'm sure there were decisions that our residents and families weren't happy with, but rarely were there complaints. I appreciate so much the words of appreciation and encouragement I get from people when I am out and about.

4. We have a supportive board of directors and senior leadership team who unselfishly give a lot to keep this ministry alive.

The week of June 20, Fairview Haven experienced our annual survey by Illinois Department of Public Health. Thank you for those who knew and prayed for a successful outcome! It was a difficult survey in some ways, but God provided. The final outcome was seven citations that were either oversights in documentation or easily fixable moving forward. We are thankful!

New Faces!

We welcome the following members to our team: Julie Steidinger, Serenity Villa nurse; Serenity Villa caregivers, Taylor Nelson, Courtney Fosdick, Abby Bergstrahl; CNAs Demi Farrell, Rebecca Spellmeyer, Laurel Aberle; Jennifer Teubel, Connections caregiver.

VOLUNTEER VOICES

TRISH STEIDINGER, Volunteer Coordinator

Recently, we had a large group of Christian Apostolic youth wash the outsides of the windows of all our buildings, except the maintenance shed. A huge thanks to all who helped with this! Your efforts were much appreciated!

We have a few upcoming volunteer needs at Fairview Haven. In about a month, we will need someone to pass water on Mondays and on the first and second Tuesdays of the month. We could use substitute volunteers immediately to pass water if a regular volunteer is not able to come on their day. Passing water usually starts about 8-8:30 am and lasts around an hour and a half. Also upcoming, we have a need for a volunteer to help with passing breakfast on Saturday mornings. Our breakfast volunteer comes about 7:15 am and volunteers for about an hour or an hour and fifteen minutes. We also have a need for volunteers to weed the landscaping all over our campus. Weeding can be done on your own time, whenever it works for you.

If you think one of these volunteer opportunities would be a good fit for you, please contact Trish for details. If you are interested in joining our volunteer team in any capacity, or have questions about becoming a volunteer, please contact Trish at 815-692-6726, 815-848-5599 or tsteidinger@fairviewhaven.org.

Any Fairview Haven teammate who finds themselves in need can reach out to one of the HOPE team members. This team includes: Sally Fehr, Kristin Slagel, Lori Ifft, Sandra Schneider and Rick Plattner. Kristin will shepherd you through the application process. Please don't despair as those who have no hope. We will try to assist you where we can.

GOOD SAMARITAN UPDATE

Our fund continues to be utilized and is always in need. This shouldn't come as much of a surprise. The world we live in is reeling with inflation and employment challenges. Costs continue to rise and funding a capable workforce is a costly challenge.

Your support helps us to provide for the needs of loved ones whose funds have been depleted. It isn't fun to always be in such a vulnerable and needy spot, but we take comfort in the teaching that God's Word gives us in II Corinthians 12:9 "My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness." What a joy to take the Scripture at its word! His help is sufficient and His strength can work even in our weakness.

Thanks for joining us in our need and blessing us with the ability to provide care to those whose hope is being challenged.

God bless you for your prayerful and financial support.
